Krishna Avatar is the eighth amongst the Dashavtars.

Lord Vishnu, who resides within the heart of every living entity, appeared in the prison house
as the Supreme Personality of Godhead before Devaki.

Being ordered by the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Vasudeva prepared to take his son from the prison house of Kamsa to Mother Yashoda's house in Gokul.

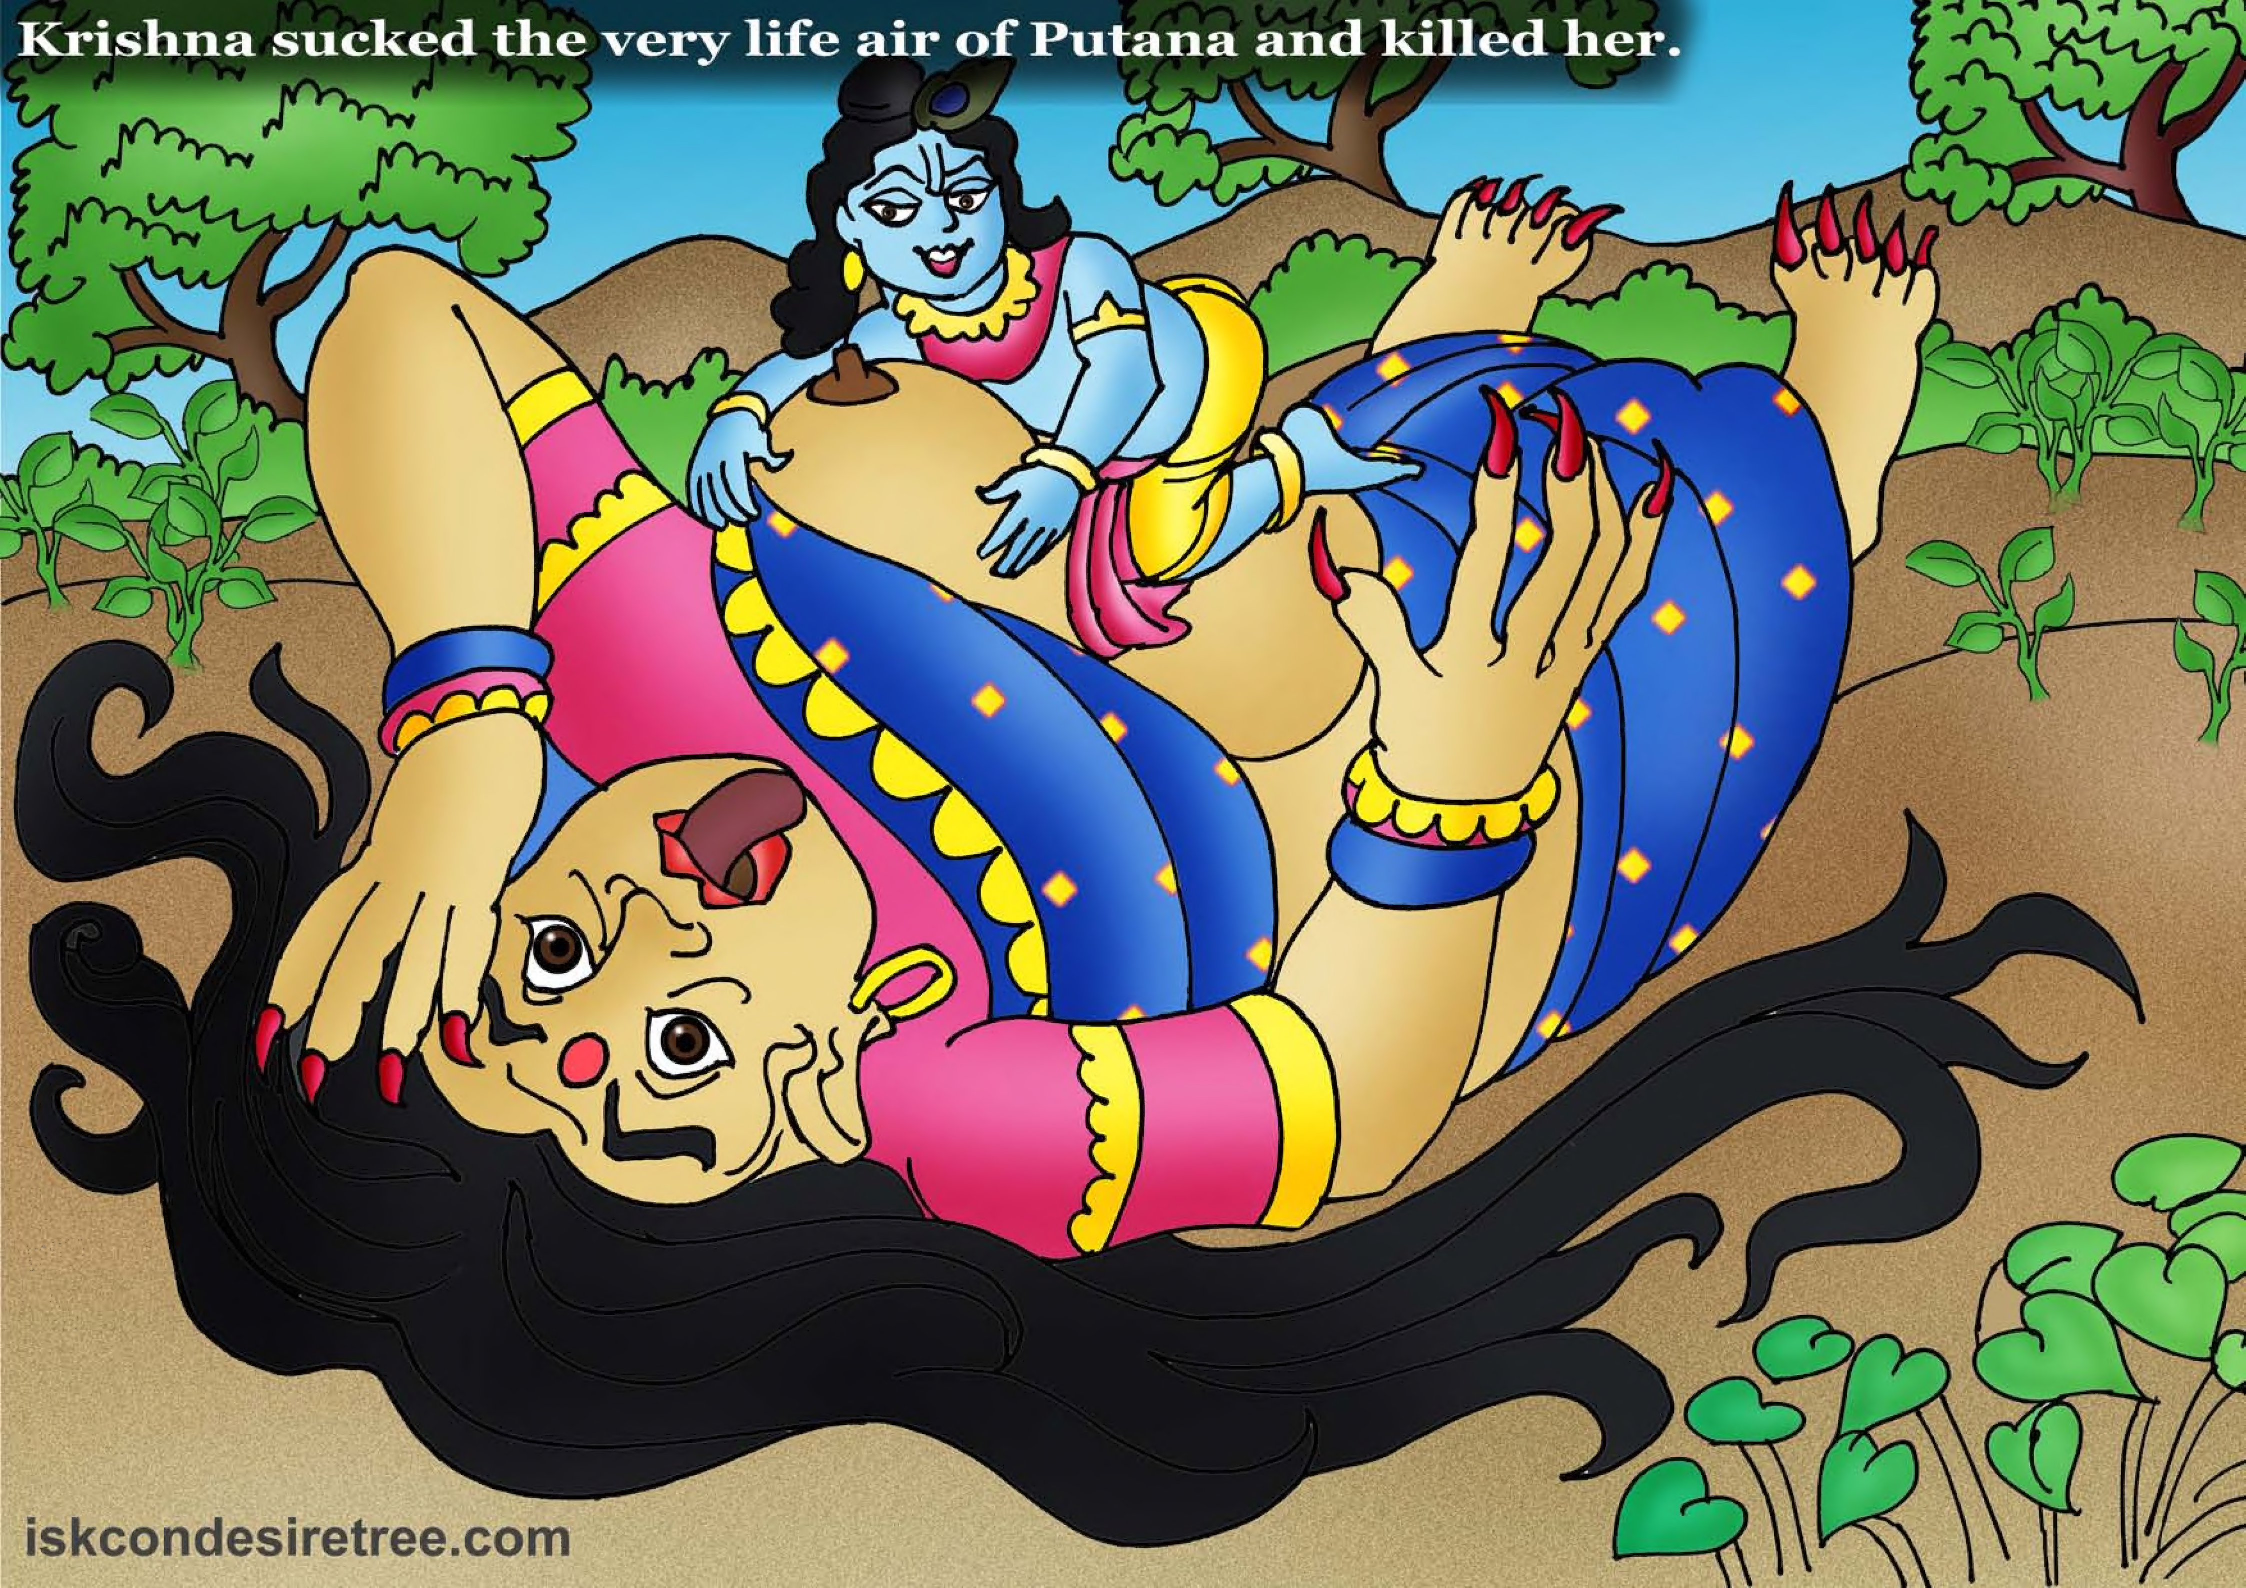

While Vasudeva was carrying his son Krishna, Lord Ananta-Shesa spread His hoods over Vasudeva to protect little Krishna from heavy rains. River Yamuna also gave passage for Vasudeva to cross over.

Finally, Krishna killed Kamsa in Mathura and freed Devaki and Vasudev from the prison house.

Shri Krishna received a letter from Rukmini, pleading him to take her away before she is married to Shishupal. Krishna arrived in Vidarbha and defeated the forces of Shishupal. He then kidnapped Rukmini and took her to Dwarka.

When Draupadi was being disrobed in the assembly of Kauravas, she helplessly prayed to Krishna for protection. Hearing her prayers, Krishna protected her by making her sari endlessly long.
